Process Control Block (PCB)

Implementation

A process is the collection of data structures that fully describes how far the execution of the program has progressed.

- ▶ Each process is represented by a PCB
- ▶ `task_struct` in 🐧

process state
PID
program counter registers
memory limits
list of open files
...